About This Class

Every day we encounter individuals who do not know the gospel of Jesus Christ. As followers of Christ ourselves, we know it's our calling to share the gospel with the lost around us, but we often find it difficult to be obedient in this task.

A reason evangelism may be difficult is we're not sure how to "get to the gospel" in our conversations with our family, co-workers, neighbors, and everyday acquaintances.

In this class, we will consider together how to weave "gospel threads", or gospel themes, into everyday conversations and situations with the goal of following the Spirit's leading in evangelism. We'll learn together how to ask thoughtful questions, give intentional answers, and how to do evangelism as an expression of who we are every day rather than seeing it as an activity we do.
